

Coming Home to your Authentic Self

A book study class on “Spiritual Liberation” by Michael Bernard Beckwith
Facilitated by Rev. Katherine Revoir

Rev. Michael defines Authentic Self as “...our inherently enlightened state, what the Buddhists call our original face and Christians define as soul.” In this 8-week class we will study Spiritual Liberation as a guide for living in joy and harmony with all aspects of our life.

The many mystical teachings are in plain English, and in this fun and informal class, Rev. Katherine offers tools for you to ignite a deeper dimension of your being.

Using right-brained plexercises (play exercises) and your inherent wisdom, you will:

- Set intentions for what you want to create, release, or transform, and then use weekly creative visuals that support your process.
- Drop dependency on the world as your source, coming home to your internal chamber to access everything you need.
- Explore, develop or deepen your spiritual practice, including prayer, play, meditation, pondering, and down time.

Join us for an introductory, “check it out” evening and get a sense of Rev. Katherine’s teaching style and a sample of her material. This evening will be held in Sausalito, January 13th at 6:30pm. The cost is $10. You do not need to attend in order to sign up for the class.

When & Where: Eight Wednesdays, January 20th - March 10,
6:30-9:00pm at our Sausalito classroom

Cost: The registration fee is $60 and an agreement to share (tithe) 10% of UNexpected income during the 8 weeks, plus the cost of the book Spiritual Liberation ($26).

Register: Please sign up early, as there are intentions to set before the first class. Call Rev. Katherine at 415 381 9161 (email KatherineQ@RicherLiving.org)
